Peter Kehoe & Associates has one of the most experienced teams in the industry today. Peter offers a unique blend of experience and perspective in all aspects of the industry. In addition to Peter's vast experience, other team members bring an average of 30 years each in the business. Joe Stetson has a lifetime of experience in the marine industry, from captaining his own vessels to closing on new constructions. Joe Santoli also brings a lifetime of marine experience to the team. Joe's dedication to his clients long after the deal is done is his greatest asset. Additionally, Joan Hatton is an experienced yacht broker who also operates our marine insurance agency, Insurance Services of Pompano Beach. Joan also conducts all closings with a personal touch and attention to detail. We welcome Bonnie Mims, our new Yacht Charter Manager who brings more than two decades of diversified experience in the yachting industry, domestic and internationally, and has served as a Marketing Director for various local community events. Randy Sweetland, a former Secret Service agent whose responsibilities included protecting the President and his family, is an excellent addition to Peter Kehoe's team. Rounding out the team is Ted Akey, a longtime friend and boating enthusiast. Ted was formerly the Bureau Chief of Florida Marine Patrol Operations and is a first class investigator. We are proud to round out our team of 20 Professional Brokers and Associates.

Peter Kehoe & Associates has weathered the changes in the industry over the years. The business has grown to include insurance products and recovery for the banking industry. The team is able to work together with the financial institutions to recover vessels, recondition and remarket them, assist with obtaining new financing and insure these vessels through the network of yacht services offered by Peter Kehoe & Associates. What sets us apart is the diversity of our team; we have a well-rounded background for both good times and not-so-good times economically. We are fortunate to have great people who are dedicated to quite simply doing the right thing.
